

MEDIA RELEASE

Tuesday, 10 March 2009

AMWAY TO DONATE $20,000 OF GOODS

Amway of Australia will donate $20,000 of goods to the victims of the Victorian bushfires.

Products will include 18,000 nappies, 75 litres of laundry detergent and 500 toothbrushes and toothpaste.

“Many families have lost everything,” Michial Coldwell, General Manager of Amway Australia, said today.

“Our thoughts are with the people of Victoria as they begin the difficult task of re-building. I hope these items can be of some help.”

Many local people and Amway staff at Castle Hill have donated blankets, products and other household items. In total, three tonnes of goods will be sent to Victoria.

“The local community has donated generously to help the people of Victoria. Local staff and Amway people have given all they can to help,” Michial Coldwell said.

Today’s assistance is in addition to the $50,000 cash donation to the Victorian Bushfire Appeal Fund.

Media contact: Kevin Lowe 0432 251 576

About Amway: Amway offers a range of high quality products to consumers through 100,000 Amway Independent Business Owners in Australia and New Zealand. Amway is an $US8.2 billion company and employs more than 13,000 people.